

For High School Teachers/Guidance Counsellors/Contacts Unfamiliar with Agriculture

The Canadian agriculture and food industry is an exciting and growing field. There are abundant employment opportunities in the agriculture and food industries. Whether you're looking to become an agronomist, a veterinarian, an agri-marketer, an animal nutritionist, a researcher, part of the agri-retail industry, a PhD, a farmer or an agricultural equipment technician, it all starts with an undergraduate degree, diploma or apprenticeship in an agriculturally based or related program.

The Canadian Agribusiness Education Foundation is awarding seven $2,500 scholarships to Canadian students who are entering or currently pursuing an agricultural-related program at a Canadian college, university or apprenticeship (trade) institution. Application deadline is April 30, 2023.

By sharing the CABEF scholarship opportunity in your networks, you just might make someone's dreams come true – and play an important part in creating the Canadian agriculture innovations of tomorrow!

Included in our attached toolkit you will find newsletter content you can share with your mailing lists, CABEF logos, sample social media posts, and videos of past winners.

Students can find out more about the scholarship application process here. Application deadline is April 30, 2023.

For Industry Partners or Contacts

Those in the business of agriculture and food industry know there is no greater place to work. We also know we need talented, energetic young people to enter the industry to keep it great. Worrisome labour shortages have our leaders calling for new measures to backfill the thousands of agri-food job vacancies in our country. There has never been a more crucial time to support youth development in Canada's agri-food sector.

That's where the Canadian Agri-Business Education Foundation (CABEF) comes in. CABEF is awarding seven $2,500 scholarships to Canadian students who are entering or currently pursuing an agricultural-related program at a Canadian college, university or apprenticeship (trade) institution. Application deadline is April 30, 2023.

We're looking to important industry partners like you for help to promote our organization and the work we do. Our goals are to promote the scholarships to potential applicants as well as fundraise to continue to provide these scholarships. We would appreciate you sharing CABEF with any students you know who may fit the criteria to receive a scholarship. You can find a link to the application here. We have also attached newsletter content for you to copy into company or personal newsletters to spread the word on the scholarship. Individuals, organizations and businesses can donate here. We have also included social media posts for you to share, along with our logos.

Don't forget to follow us on Twitter, Instagram, and LinkedIn for updates on scholarship deadlines, winner announcements and more.

By sharing the CABEF scholarship opportunity in your networks, you just might make someone's dreams come true – and play an important part in creating the Canadian agriculture innovations of tomorrow!
